

STANDARD BEARERS

THE EXCELLENCE IN ENERGY
CODE COMPLIANCE AWARD

Now in its second year, IMT will again recognize jurisdictions for exemplary work in achieving energy code compliance with the Standard Bearers: Excellence in Energy Code Compliance Award.

The annual award's aim is to recognize jurisdictions and individuals who are using cost-effective, scalable programs and to encourage others to strive for better code compliance. Winners of the Standard Bearers Award will be announced at the International Code Council's (ICC) Annual Conference in Atlantic City, NJ and profiled on IMT's website, newsletter, and press release. All local and state government enforcement programs are eligible.
